Rules of Conduct

Violation of the Laborers' Training Center rules is considered to be extremely serious, and a detriment to the Training Fund, as well as to the safety and welfare of all trainees. Violation of these Rules of Conduct will be cause for dismissal from the class and may result in revocation of privileges to attend future training at the Laborers' Training Center.

1. Making malicious, derogatory, or false statements about the Fund, its' staff, or Trustees.
2. Any conduct contrary to common decency or morality, including gambling, or any other game of chance on Training School property at any time, disorderly conduct, horseplay, or any willful act which endangers others.
3. Fighting, assaulting, detaining, or physically abusing any trainee, supervisor, or staff.
4. Threatening bodily harm or using abusive language.
5. Sleeping on the job or hiding from a supervisor.
6. Gross negligence in the performance of any assignment.
7. Defacing school property or placing pornographic pictures on any property, equipment, tools, etc.
8. Wasting time or loitering in restrooms or on any Training School property during work/classroom time.
9. Unauthorized distribution of literature, written or printed matter of any description in training classes or working areas of company premises during working hours.
10. Throwing refuse or objects on the floors or out the windows.
11. Participating in training classes or work under the influence of drugs and/or alcohol.
12. Possession, sale, and/or use of firearms or weapons of any nature on Training School property.
13. Removal of any Training School property from the premises.

I have read and understand all the "Rules of Conduct" and realize that any act of misconduct as stated will be grounds for my immediate dismissal from the Laborers' Training Center.
